

Hire Smart People. Retain Them. Save Money.

Practicing What We Teach

Much of EMG's success comes from our ongoing commitment to diversity. To share what we have learned, we have created training programs that allow our clients to realize the benefits of a diversified workforce, allowing them to open doors to untapped potential.

We also provide a comprehensive program, Getting Hired 101, at colleges and universities across the country to prepare students for entering the workforce. Based on our positive experiences, we see our program as a way to foster diversity within companies across the U.S.

Our mission is simple: to provide clients with alternatives to the costly, inefficient, and outdated methods of attracting and retaining the best possible people.

A Commitment to Excellence

It is our opinion that when all is said and done, the people of a company make the ultimate difference. It is our mission as an organization to help other companies find and retain the highest quality professionals. Looking beyond the tired and old-fashioned sources for candidates has helped our clients experience 90% or better retention rates in industries ranging from IT and Accounting to Pharmaceutical and Finance.

The Getting Hired 101 Program

Our company's own diversity has enabled us to grow and provide our clients with unmatched quality and service. We created the Getting Hired 101 program with the focus of providing minority students with the tools necessary to succeed in Corporate America.

Getting Hired 101 is a comprehensive program is comprised of the following components:

-  A series of seminars addressing interview dos and don'ts, resume preparation, proper attire, establishing a strong first impression, verbal and physical communication skills, and the role of networking
-  Assistance with the development of internship and job placement programs
-  Coaching students on the job search process and how to uncover hidden markets
-  Collaboration with schools, athletic departments, and career services to organize events focused on attracting companies for campus visits
